

Camogie Annual Report 2022

Our Camogie season began with indoor training in January 2022 with our team structure as odd numbers. In March we learned that the county had reverted to an even numbers structure. There was a lack of communication to the club from the county - this was resolved and the club responded by reshuffle of players. Our U12 & U16 teams entered their respective leagues. Our outdoor training began in April with all age groups training on Friday nights at St. Mark's.

With our U16 team the squad was small - this created a number of issues for U16's within the league as teams would not play unless we could field a full team. This resulted in a reduction of games that this team played throughout the season. This squad has held the numbers for the year and consists of many of our founding members which is a credit to the coaches and the club. The Camogie U16 team's season ended with achieving the shield in the last blitz of the season.

The U12 league had a very packed game schedule - ensuring that we attended so many games was due to the commitment of our players and coaches. Our U12 team had a squad of experienced players and they performed well during this league achieving many wins. A large number of these players will be moving on from the U12 age group in 2023 and again many of these players are our founding members.

During the summer the U8/10/12 teams also trained on a Tuesday night @ Milltown. Numbers for both training sessions remained strong - this demonstrates the commitment of the players and the enthusiasm of the coaches for Camogie within Cumann Pheadair Naofa. Our underage Camogs had a very busy playing schedule - the coaches were eager to ensure that our camogs achieved plenty of game experiences. In August, three of our young camogs represented the club at the activity day in Croke Park.

Camogie in Cumann Pheadair Naofa has grown since its restart eight years ago. Initially one full kit was used for all age groups and now we have five full kits. It is planned that Camogie within Cumann Pheadair Naofa will continue to grow within the next few years will field a senior team in the blue & white.

The following table contains a schedule of games played throughout the 2022 season and the coaches in each age group.
